

The Menu – biography

The Menu is a live band, performing at functions, born from very experienced, professional musicians with a pedigree of live performances and sessions spanning many years. We are a four piece rock/pop band featuring both male and female lead vocals specialising in :- Weddings, Corporate Events and Private Functions. Our line up is lead guitar/vocals, bass guitar/vocals, drums/vocals and lead vocals (female). We have a very large repertoire, or menu, of songs to suit all tastes and events. We play all types of music from rock to modern, 60's to present day but with one thing in common - all our songs will make you get up and dance! Customers are free to choose some of the songs for us to play at their event if they wish. The result will be a show that will impress and last in your guests memories for years to come.

The band is based in the Loch Lomond area and is available to travel throughout Scotland and the UK and beyond. Email us now with your requirement to bookings@themenuband.co.uk and we will respond with our availability and cost. We have a full range of backline amplification plus a very large, modular PA system and lighting system to suit all sizes of venue. All that is required is power.

The Menu is a four piece band formed in 2008 and features musicians of the highest calibre having played in popular, chart topping bands like The Sweet, Dr. Feelgood, The Stiffs and The Carpettes. The result is a superb sound which is extremely good technically and very, very tight!

The lineup is as follows:-
